Next Guild Meeting~~~~December 6th

FELLOWSHIP— 11:00am

CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON—11:15am

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I heard I missed a good meeting. I hope you all enjoyed it. We will have to keep this program in mind if we have a cancellation next year. If you would like to share a technique let Chris Reynolds know.

Just a couple of reminders:

- ☐ December is our luncheon. Remember it starts at 11:00am and we will have a gift exchange. Also, bring an unwrapped child's gift for the church collection.
- ☐ Bring SOLD Raffle Tickets to turn in.
- ☐ Please bring 2011 dues to the meeting or send them to Ginny Hendrix, Membership Chairperson.
- ☐ We will have Show 'n Tell.
- ☐ And if there is any bad weather and the schools are closed, we follow the Hall County School System.

The Holidays are approaching fast and, of course, I'm not ready, are you?

Diana

Raffle Quilt Update

We have passed the $4000.00 mark on our raffle ticket sales! Thank you everyone for your hard work, especially at the Georgia Quilt Show and Fall Festivals. Thanks again to Ida Schwind for coordinating our booths at Art in the Square and the Braselton Fall Festival. We had a total of $851 in sales at the fall two events that Ida supervised!

Please remember to turn in all your final tickets and sales money as soon as possible – the drawing is Monday December 6th at our holiday meeting. Call me if you need more tickets or need to turn in tickets and money before the meeting. Also, don't forget the prize for the member who sells the most tickets: A beautiful gift basket donated by Anne Raptis and a $25.00 award from the guild. We have quite a few members who have sold over 200 tickets each already!

The Georgia Quilt Show was a tremendous success for us because of all our members that volunteered for us to get our free booth and staffed the booth to sell raffle tickets: (I hope I have included everyone on this list!)

Booth Workers:

Roxan Brown	Janet Allen (Diana's sister from Rhode Island!)	Diana Carrillo
Ginny Hendrix	Sherry Kaas	Lola Lee

Sherry Kaas--- Committee Chair

Art in the Square – Gainesville.....

Just wanted everyone to know at Art in the Square we received a $50.00 cash reward drawing for the booth and a gift certificate for brunch from the Holiday Inn. I, Diana Carrillo, made an executive decision to give the gift certificate to Ida Schwind for her hard work as chairperson for Art in the Square and Braselton Antique Festival

Programs

November's program was School House: I'd like to say a special THANK YOU to Joan Garland, Shirley Erickson, Glenda Holcomb, Martha Griffin, Betty Heathman for doing such a great job on teaching these important elements of quilting. I'd also like to say a special thank you to Terry Powers for filling in at the last minute and doing paper piecing. I know a lot of people were new and really learned a lot and others just enjoyed having a refresher. Several asked to do it again because they learned so much.

December is our luncheon and gift exchange. Bring your gift wrapped or in a gift bag, a toy (unwrapped) for the church, and a favorite dish or dessert. If you have volunteered to help set-up the room, please be there at 10:30. Otherwise please come at 11:00 and we will eat promptly at 11:15 AM.

Unwrapped Toy for the Church

step 1: Fold the square into 3 equal sections, so that the side flaps overlap equally.

step 2: stitch through all layers of fabric, only where the two side flaps overlap. This will create the pockets.

stitch up the sides

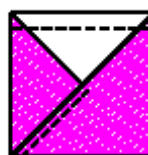

step 3: fold it in half so that the top and bottom flap are together and stitch up the sides*. Note: the bottom flap is now a top flap too.

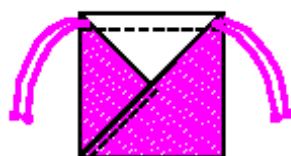

*I stitched as close to the side as possible, since I don't have to worry about raveling step 4: turn the bag inside out and fold down the top flaps.

step 5: stitch about 1/2" from the top over the top flaps as if you were sewing a sleeve.

step 6: string cord through the sides. Note: In step three if you fold it the other way and sew it up, the pockets will be on the inside.
