

Churn Dash News

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

I have enjoyed being your president for the past two years. I can't believe my time is over. We had great board meetings with delicious lunches and social time, and I got my house straightened up and cleaned at least once a month. I do hope that you all support your new incoming Co-Presidents and board members.

As the outgoing president, I am still plugging to fill our last board member position, which is raffle ticket sales coordinator. If you think the job is too much for one person, you can co-chair with a friend. Please, just volunteer, we need you.

I want to thank my outgoing board for working hard and doing an outstanding job!

Hall County has a lot of talented members and I hope you volunteer your talents and your time in the next year.

Keep Sewing, I love when you all share your talents at our monthly meetings.

Hall County Quilt Guild

General meeting Minutes

January 9, 2012

Diana Carrillo opened the meeting at 10:00 am. She wished 8 people happy birthday. The minutes and the treasurer's report were accepted as printed in the newsletter.

Roxan Brown reported on the results of the nominating committee. President and Co-President will be Mary Colley and Mary Ann Cox. Vice Presidents/programs will be Julie Monroe and Ginny Hendrix. Treasurer will be Ida Schwind and Secretary will be Frances Brooks.

Eagle Ranch charms were given out to those who were not at the Christmas luncheon.

Chris Reynolds gave out two forgotten gifts and we applauded her for a great job of organizing the Christmas lunch. She then introduced our speaker Lynn Johnson. She showed us some beautiful quilts. After a 10 minute break we had our committee reports.

Committee Reports:

- Membership- Sherry Kaas-36 people signed in which included one guest and one new member.
- Programs- Chris Reynolds thanked our speaker and told us her patterns would be for sale after the meeting. Next month will be Shannon Armstrong with her story of her Aunt Della. There may be a short workshop after the meeting. Julie Monroe then talked to us about the upcoming year. March will be our installation of officers and we will start a block of the month and patterns will be given out. Joyce Jones will be coming to show us how to do a half log cabin. October will bring Pat Wys. Julie talked briefly about the Christmas luncheon that is in the works. Julie also says she hopes to have the schedule of this year's speakers ready for us in March.
Project Day- Next Monday. Project day is for working on Eagle Ranch quilts, completing your own projects, and finishing projects that you may have started in recent workshops etc. Dianna reminded us that we need to be mindful of keeping up the good work of completing the Eagle Ranch quilts. Every other month work on unfinished project or current workshop.
- Eagle Ranch- Betty and Carol-Project Day will be January 16th. A signup sheet for Project day was sent around. Please bring something to share for lunch. Thirty (30) quilts went to Eagle Ranch after the Christmas party. We delivered a total of 80 quilts in 2011. We will deliver more quilts in May. Carol requested that when you have an Eagle Ranch quilt top completed, you should call either her or Betty Heathman and give them the measurement of your top so that they can cut the batting and get it to you at the next guild meeting. They think this will help with the turn-around time on getting the quilts to the quilters and back to the person making the quilt so they can put their binding on. Someone has donated fabric to the guild for Eagle Ranch quilts. Joan Garland has been collecting simple patterns that are suitable for Eagle Ranch quilts. The plan is to combine the fabric and patterns into kits that will be distributed to whoever is willing to make the quilts for Eagle Ranch.

- Raffle Quilt- Amanda got the fabric for Churn Dash quilt and has kits made up. She asked that members take a block to complete and return to her. Please strive for a 12 1/2 inch block.
- Chicken Quilt Show- Judy Wangemann and Joan Garland- It would be nice to have one, two or three quilts from each member for the show. They would like to have new quilts that have not been shown in previous chicken shows. They gave out forms for you to fill out so they can make cards to go beside your quilt. They also gave out a Spring Challenge form for a new quilt. The boutique has been approved and Linda O Donald will be in charge of it. Ten percent will be donated back to the guild. The items should all be chicken related.
- Winter Retreat- Ginny Hendrix---The retreat will be next week, January 17th, 18th, and 19th at Camp Twin Lakes at Fort Yargo in Winder, Georgia. Ginny asked for those who are going to the retreat to please see her after the guild meeting is over.

- Hospitality- Terry Powers- Thanked those who made our goodies today and passed around a clip board for you to sign up for the upcoming meetings.

We ended the meeting with show and tell and the Birthday Raffle.

Respectfully Submitted,

Roxan Brown

- Sunshine- Eliza Cagle- Faye Rawls husband is doing much better but Martha Griffins husband is in need of prayers. Eliza is taking care of her husband at home.

Valentine's Day!*

2. Must have at least one flower, can have more.
3. Must have a BUG hidden somewhere on the front of the quilt
4. Must be 3 layers, top, batting, and backing and be quilted or tied, and bound. You must have a quilt label on the back.
5. Quilt can be pieced, appliquéd, or embroidered. You can use any fabric you choose, and any embellishments.
6. Must be a member of the guild.
7. Due Date: April Guild meeting, April 2, 2012. These challenge quilts will be hung and shown at the annual quilt show in Gainesville.

HALL COUNTY ANNUAL QUILT SHOW

The Hall County Quilt show, held in conjunction with the Gainesville Chicken festival, is Saturday April 28, 2012. Our quilts are hung inside the Georgia Mountain Center so they are protected from the elements.

All guild members are encouraged to enter one or up to three quilts for our quilt display. We would like quilts that were made in 2011 or 2012. Please, NO repeats from previous years, we would like a fresh look. Since the theme of the festival is "chickens" we encourage you to enter a "chicken" theme quilt along with your other quilts. You must have a label on the back of your quilts with your name on it. All quilts must be three layers; quilted or tied and have a binding on it.

We have issued a "Chicken Challenge" to all of the Hall County Middle and High schools, but as of this writing we have not heard whether they will participate.

Attached is a form to be filled out for each quilt being enter at the show. Please return these forms by the April guild meeting.

HALL COUNTY QUILT GUILD CHICKEN FESTIVAL BOUTIQUE

The organizers of the Chicken Festival have generously given us space to hold our first Hall County Quilters Boutique. This gives us the benefit of selling and promoting our work. And by returning 10% of sales back to our guild helps pay for our speaker's, workshops, and Eagle Ranch supplies.

The items need to be made by a HCQG member and must be made of fabric. There will be room for your business cards as well. You may want to sell some of those chicken themed items you have been collecting. Please fill out the attached application with the number of items you want to sell. Be sure and include a description and size of your items. The boutique committee may have to limit items as space is a factor. Before the sale, you will be given a tag to pin on to your items with your name and price. A cashier will collect the money and another volunteer will log and track sales the day of the festival.

Any questions please contact Linda O'Donnell at LODQUILTER@AOL.COM or 770-967-6389.

Welcome To Our New Store

Hello, we would like to introduce ourselves and our new store to your guild members, and invite you to visit us, individually or as a group. We are a small, independent shop in Hartwell, GA, near the beautiful Lake Hartwell. Our shop focuses on providing a wide variety of fabric and notions (at least as much as we can fit in our space). We carry Red Rooster, Moda, Windham, Clothworks, Blank Quilting, RJR and more in our fabric lines. We have a special buy section as well with all fabric $7.99 or less, all of it high quality fabric. We have new collections coming in every month from most of the manufacturers.

We have a customer reward program for anyone interested. Customers who spend $250 get a $25 gift certificate to be used on a future purchase. Our computer system obligingly keeps track of purchases so there are no punch cards to keep track of and the gift certificate is issued as soon as $250 is reached.

Guild or Group Outing

We would love to invite a group of your members to visit us. Call to arrange a day and we will roll out the virtual red carpet. We will provide refreshments and specials for your group on that day and we can recommend local restaurants for lunch or more substantial snacks on your day trip. We do ask for some advance notice so we are sure to have staff available to assist everyone in your group, and enough coffee in the pot.

Check out the Waterfall Grille at Cateechee Golf Club, Fletchers Restaurant or Dockside Seafood House for lunch.

If you would like to subscribe to our regular newsletter please go to our website at www.anniesprettypieces.com and sign up. We have weekly specials, classes, and workshops announced through our newsletter, along with monthly coupons and other deals offered only to subscribers.
