PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all!

Our new year is about to get under way. Let us all see if we can get at least five of those unfinished projects done in 2011. I'm trying my hardest to get as many projects finished as I can... so much sewing and not enough time. One of the projects I would like to complete, before my grandsons get to be teenagers, is a cowboy-themed quilt. I have one top finished and, if my daughter ever makes up her mind if she wants a full or twin size quilt for my other grandson, I can get to that too. Sometimes I think whoever we are making something for makes our projects unfinished.

We had a great Christmas luncheon. The food was great, and I was excited to see so many of you in attendance. Eagle Ranch charms were distributed, and I hope it will give those of you who did not receive a charm the incentive to complete three quilts in 2012. Our new guild pins will be distributed starting with paid 2012 membership in January.

We still have some board positions to fill. Remember, this is our guild and we are only as good as the people who volunteer their time. We need each and every one of you to be a part of this guild. If you have held a position a few years ago or if you have never held a position, it is time for you to volunteer.

Happy Sewing!

Diana

HALL COUNTY QUILT GUILD

*Christmas Luncheon and General meeting
December 5, 2011*

At 11:00 the Pastor of the Chestnut Mountain Presbyterian Church led us in our blessing. The food was great and after we ate our guild gave the church a donation for allowing us to use their fellowship hall. We then had our door prize drawing for the nutcrackers which three of the staff members won.

- Diana Carrillo welcomed us there and wished the 4 people with December birthdays a happy birthday.
- The minutes and the treasurer's report were accepted as printed in the newsletter.
- Diana gave out the charms for those who had made more than three Eagle Ranch Quilts.
- Betty Heathman and Carol Johnson thanked us for all the Eagle Ranch quilts and we in turn gave them a big hand for all their hard work. There were 80 all together and they were going to deliver 30 more that afternoon.
- We played a trivia game for our favors.
- Our retreat is still open if you want to go. It is $95.00 and will be January 17th, 18th, and 19th of 2012. The guild members voted and approved $100.00 to spend for door prizes during the retreat.
- Joan Garland said we would have another chicken show challenge in January.
- Terry Powers had a sheet to send around to sign up for next year's refreshment table.
- Sherry Kaas reminded us dues will be due next month.
- Our meeting next month will be January 9th of 2012 with a trunk show and workshop from Lynn Johnson on the double wedding ring pattern.
- We then had our brown bag challenge swap and opened our gifts.
- The very last thing was our Raffle quilt drawing and it was won by Glenda Holcomb's daughter, Cristy Brantley.

We all had a great time.

Respectfully submitted,

Roxan Brown

Deadline for newsletter articles is January 11, 2012 by 5:00pm

Thank you ladies! We had a great year for EAGLE RANCH, Carol and I express our appreciation for all your help. There were some ladies that donated quilts completed and that gave us a very productive year. We need your continued support in the coming year. Keep in mind the cut-off date will be September so we can try to get them completed by year end. Also, as you bring in your quilt tops or completed quilts I will have a book for you to check in your quilt. I need this information to be able to keep my records. A completed quilt by an individual needs to be listed on top maker and quilter list.

ATTENTION: PROJECT DAY, EVERYONE is encouraged to come and work on their project or whatever we have going on for Eagle Ranch. If you take a Workshop but didn't finish the item, The following Project Day will be a time dedicated to finish your project. Next project day is January 16th 2012. Join us for FUN, FELLOWSHIP, and FOOD.

EAGLE RANCH CHAIRMEN: Betty Heathman/Carol Johnson

I figured everyone would like to know how much money we made from the raffle quilt. Our gross amount of sales was $2800.00 according to what I recorded. We had a few expenses, but overall we had a good year.

I hope a couple of people will volunteer to take the raffle quilt job this year. Amanda has already agreed to make the quilt for us, so if someone volunteers early we should do very well this year. I'm sure Amanda will make a beautiful quilt.

MY QUILT

My neighbor is washing her windows.
And scrubbing and mopping her floors.
But my house is all topsy and turvy,
And dust is behind all the doors.

My neighbor, she keeps her house spotless.
And she goes all day on a trot:
But no one would know in a fortnight
If she swept today or not.

The task I am at is enticing –
My neighbor is worn to a rag –
I am making a quilt out of pieces
I saved in a pretty chintz bag.

And this quilt, I know my descendants
Will exhibit with credit to me –
“So lovely – my grandmother made it
Long ago in 2005”.

But will her grandchildren remember
Her struggles with dirt and decay?
They will not – they will wish she had made them
The quilt I am making today.
