NEXT GUILD MEETING~~~NOVEMBER 1st

♥ FELLOWSHIP— 9:30am ♥ MEETING BEGINS—10:00am

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

Can you believe this weather? It should be fall or did I miss it? We had a great October meeting. I am sorry Ann Holmes had to back out at the last minute but Mita from The Patchwork Cottage filled in nicely. It was interesting to learn all about Mita's shop.

Nominations are coming up and I would like each of you to consider being on the board, taking a chairperson position, or being on a committee. Remember, this is your guild and we are only as good as the people who volunteer to do their best in these positions. These jobs are not hard, maybe a little time consuming and, of course, you have to attend board meetings and have lunch... yummm.

The best place to find out what's going on in the guild is to read your newsletter. The newsletter editor works very hard to keep us informed.

November is School House

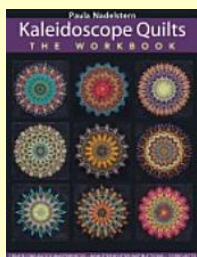

The following people have signed up to do a presentation.

Joan Garland
Shirley Erickson
Patti Cross
Glenda Holcomb
Martha Griffin
Betty Heathman

Flying Geese with a ruler
Binding and Scalloped Borders
Paper Piecing
Wavy Borders
Machine Quilting in Sections
Mitered Corners

November-- Workshop is Kaleidoscope with Janice Chesnick on Tues Nov 2 - 9:30 am bring your own lunch. If you don't already have it, you need the newest book by Paula Nadelstern called Kaleidoscope Quilts the Workbook. (Amazon.com $17.47) If you haven't bought the fabric for this workshop Jeanne from Sew Memorable is going to send the bolts of fabric to the workshop for us. The fabric is beautiful. Jan will also be bringing graph paper, rulers, and pens which she will sell to anyone who wants them at her cost.

December is our luncheon and gift exchange. Some of our new members said they would like to participate in the gift exchange as well. Next month, (Nov) bring 3 coordinating fat quarters in a lunch bag along with your name (very important) and put it on a table in the back and before you leave pick up one that you did not bring. Then make a gift with the fat quarters and you may add any other fabrics you choose. Bring your gift wrapped or in a gift bag to the Dec. luncheon.

January's work shop will be 3-D Dimensional Workshop with Beverly Mannes from the Mountain Laurel Guild. Most of you will remember this group when they visited us last year with their beautiful quilts. One of the ones everyone liked was the geranium outside a window. Beverly will be teaching us that technique. You will need the book More Fabulous Flowers by Sharon K. Baker. I'm giving you this title early so you can buy it before Christmas. The rest of the supplies that you need will be from your stash. So this should be an affordable workshop for right after Christmas.

February Jeanne Rish from Sew Memorable in Dawsonville will be our speaker. . She will be just back from Market in Houston and will tell us about all the latest things. She will be doing a workshop that afternoon but that will be determined after Houston. If you haven't heard Jeanne before, I promise you it will be so memorable.

APPRECIATION

I would like to thank you all for your sympathy cards and calls. Your words of encouragement were very comforting to me and my family.

I was very blessed to have my Mom for so many years. She would have been 96 this November. She lived a wonderful healthy life and will be sorely missed.

Joan Garland

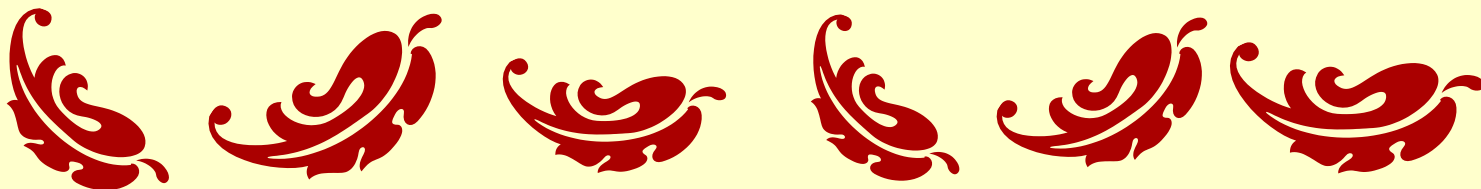

HOSPITALITY:

Charlotte Payne, Faye Rawls, Julie Monroe, Sandy Bulter, Kathy Burkes.

- ❖ Arrive at monthly meeting by 9:15am
- ❖ Supply refreshments for monthly meetings
- ❖ Have refreshment ready for consuming by 9:30am
- ❖ Help set up chairs for meeting
- ❖ Help put chairs away after meeting

Myra Taylor—Chairperson

SUNSHINE:

Amanda is still under the weather and has resigned her position.

Joan Garland's mother has passed away.

Judy Wangemann has a new grand baby and showed us a picture. She was on some of Judy's quilts

Please let Eliza know if you or someone you know is ill or needs a bit of sunshine via cards, phone call, or visit.

Hall County Quilt Guild

October 4, 2010

The meeting was brought to order by Fay Rawls at 10:00 am. She wished Happy Birthday to 8 members.

There is a correction to last month's minutes. It should read that the Nov. 2 workshop will be kaleidoscope quilts. A check has been sent to Diabetes Association in memory of Daryl Hood.

The meeting was then turned over to our speaker Mita Chatterjee with Patchwork Cottage, who filled in for our cancelled speaker. The workshop was also cancelled. Mita showed us some of her quilts and how she got started. She gave us 10% discount coupons. She also had some things from her shop for sale. She introduced one of her teachers, Jennie Weaver to us.

After a short break the meeting resumed with committee reports.

- Roxan reported on nominating committee. Still need co president and programs 2012.

- Looking to purchase a sound system for under $200 motion to purchase a sound system was made by Sylvia Hulsy and second by Pat Anderson. It passed unanimous.

- Anyone wishing to sell anything should tell board before meeting.

- Membership- Ginny reported we have 67 members and 38 members present with 2 visitors.

- Library- Ann Raptis reported that we have $40 in the Library fund. We have a new book on color mastery that will be ready next month. She will be going to Fla. for 6 months and Shirley Erickson will be taking her place.

- Programs- November will be school house. December will be the Christmas luncheon and in January we will have Beverly Mannes here and she will have a workshop on 3D flowers. February will bring Jeannie Rush from Sew memorable.

- Eagle Ranch Ida Schwind told us we won a ribbon and $50 for the people's choice award at "Art in the Square". They took in $418. Project Day will be October 18 and a pattern and fabric was passed out for a block to make. Two more thank you cards were read.
- Raffle Quilt- Quilt expo coming up and we still need 2 volunteers for Saturday. Need someone to volunteer to take the quilt to Braselton Antique Festival October 23 and 24th. Need an event in November to take it to. Have raised $2,108. In ticket sales.
- Hospitality- Still needs volunteers for February and March. Myra shared with us her recent trip to Tillamook, Oregon. She saw quilt blocks on buildings and barns.
- Sunshine- Amanda is still under the weather and has resigned her position. Glenda Holcomb will be doing the newsletter for the rest of the year. She needs her articles by Friday after the meeting. Joan Garland's mother has passed away. Judy Wangemann has a new grand baby and showed us a picture. She was on some of Judy's quilts. Eliza Cagle will be glad to be our Sunshine person next year.
- New e-mail address is hallcquiltg@yahoo.com
- Those that are new may bring in 3 fat quarters in a brown bag for the challenge in Dec.
- If you know of something coming up you may put this in the newsletter.

Respectfully Submitted,
Roxan Brown

We had a very successful display at the Georgia Quilt Show and sold $749 in raffle tickets! THANK YOU so much to all of the show volunteers who donated their time and worked for the Sewing Expo to get us our free booth, and to the booth volunteers who staffed the booth for the three days of the show and sold tickets. We could not have had such wonderful results without all of your hard work and I really appreciate it!

Our next event for the raffle quilt is the Braselton Fall Antique and Gardening Festival in Braselton Park on October 23rd and 24th. Ida Schwind has graciously volunteered to coordinate this event for us, so please say yes if she asks for your help!

Please remember to turn in your sold raffle tickets and money at the next meeting and get more tickets if you need them. Don't forget, we have a beautiful prize basket (courtesy of Anne Raptis) and a free workshop for the member who sells the most tickets. Our sales have now passed the $3000 mark and we only have six more weeks to go until the drawing!
