

CHURN DASH

Hall County Quilters Guild

February 2023

FROM OUR PRESIDENT -

Hope everyone is having a wonderful start to the New Year!! We will be holding our February meeting at Curt's Restaurant on Monday the 6th at 10:00. Please make arrangements to car pool if able as their parking area is limited. They are allowing us to meet there for free so some of us will be staying for lunch as a thank you for their kindness. Hope you can join us.

We were saddened by the death of one of our long-time members, Pat Shepperd. Her family was very appreciative of the members who attended her viewing and funeral. It was beautiful to see all of her quilts on display and to see the love she had put into quilts for her family and friends. We will be taking up a donation to the Quilts of Valor in her honor, in place of flowers, as her family had requested.

CHANGE OF MEETING LOCATION

Due to work being done in our regular meeting place at Chestnut Mtn Presbyterian we will be meeting at Curt's Cafeteria this month.

To thank them for allowing us to use their meeting room, please consider having lunch there after the meeting.

Also, Susan Steele will be taking up donations for Quilts of Valor in honor of Pat Sheppard

PROGRAMS -

Our year started off great with a lecture and truck show by Cindy Williams at our January meeting. The next day Cindy conducted a workshop for the group. Those of you who couldn't attend missed an enlightening day as we saw the pattern come together. Hopefully we will see several interpretations of the pattern during future meetings at Show and Tell.

In February we will have a program featuring the nominated Leadership Team for 2023. Each nominated officer and committee chair will share a bit about their love of quilting. I'm sure we will see some beautiful examples of their work.

It is also time to sign up for our April workshop with Nancy Mahoney. Nancy is a nationally known speaker and does many workshops and classes at major quilt shows. She will be teaching us paper piecing. The name of the pattern is Wild Waves (see picture below). If you want to know more about Nancy, check out her webpage <https://www.nancymahoney.com/> Signups have already begun and the workshop is limited to 25 so see me at the February meeting or contact me to secure your space.

DOG AND CAT BEDS

I would like to ask all of you to hold on turning in pet beds this month. The Humane Society experienced a great deal of damage from the frozen pipes in December. They are diligently working on repairs and have no place to store them at this time. Please don't stop making the beds, I'll have more covers available at the February meeting and hopefully will be able to deliver new ones to them before long.

Thanks again for all you do.

Chris Anderson

GET TO KNOW YOUR FELLOW MEMBERS

We have a new article we are going to start. Get to Know Your Fellow Members.

Each month we will send out a question to several members and ask them a quilty question. We will then put their answers in this article. Maybe we will find out something about each other we didn't know. Maybe something we have in common with each other. This month is -

Do you have a favorite Fabric Designer?

Lisa Vieira - Sandy Gervais - Riley Blake

Mary Lowrey - wow -- I don't have a fav designer, actually only know a handful of names. My quilts and projects are mostly true scrappy things made from mostly "give away" and "hand me down" fabrics! Of course, I supplement them with occasional solids or prints that catch my eye.

Chris Anderson - I don't have a favorite designer, usually I find a pattern I like and change it to fit my ideas. I love to work with batiks, but am not limited by it. Quilting is always a new adventure for me.

Trisha Brisbois - Kansas Troubles - Moda Fabrics

Denise Ulrich - I can't think of a designer that I search for, but I am drawn to solids with coordinating background prints because they allow my long arm quilting to show. I know it may be heresy, but I think I like to long arm just a bit more than piecing so the solids make me happy.

Robin Neiheisel - I like the designs by Jason Yenter at In the Beginning Fabrics. They are amazing!

Jenny Thomas - I love Kansas Troubles a lot. I lean more toward fall colors. I still love my Thimbleberries fabric that I hoard since they are not available any more.

Connie Murphy - I'm a big fan of 1930's fabric and scrappy quilts - they are so old fashioned and beautiful- they feel like I'm creating history when I sew!
